

THINK OUTSIDE THE BLOCKS

Quality Policy

General Principles

Watson Homes is committed to providing a high-quality service and high-quality developments that meet and often go beyond the needs of our customers and third parties. We meet all our statutory and legal requirements.

Quality is essential to our culture and is right at the heart of our company. It is key to achieving and maintaining long-term partnerships. This trust is based on our reputation for delivering high-quality developments and services time and time again.

We always aim to deliver developments and services that meet specification and are handed over on time.

We are dedicated to improving our overall quality performance and Quality Management System where we can. We set and regularly review goals and objectives to make sure our products and services remain consistent, while looking for opportunities for improvement.

This Quality Policy is reviewed, communicated, understood, and rolled out across the company with a commitment from Watson Homes' Directors to achieve our quality objectives as a world-class supplier.
